

Appendix A

Transitions to California Code Certifications for Current Certificate Holders

Options to Achieve Transition

1. Completion of the relevant transition exam

2007 California Codes transition exams are offered via the Online Renewal Update Program on the Code Council website under "Certification Renewal" (www.iccsafe.org/e/mycert.html). Transition exams are based primarily on the California amendments to the model codes. All transition exams are open book with no specific time limit to complete each exam; however, there is a 99-day limit for the Online Renewal Update Program. This limit begins on the date that you register for this Program. All registration, fee payment, and exam administration is completed online. Once you have completed the online exam(s), a separate application and fee are required for the transition(s). The applications are included in this Appendix.

AND / OR

2. Completion of training based on the 2007 California code(s) referenced by the specific exam

A. CALBO seminars:

S1 seminar: 2007 CBC Nonstructural Provisions

NOTE: You must fill out all pages of the applicable Transition Application to be considered for transition certification.

TRANSITION from Current Certifications Based on the 2006/2005 International/NEC Codes to Certifications Based on the 2007 CALIFORNIA Codes

The Code Council allows transition from the ICC National examinations to the 2007 California-specific certifications as shown below:

- “Code Council National Certification Held” is the certification, based on the current International Codes, that you currently hold
- “Exam Option” and “Seminar/Training Option” are the exam(s) and/or seminar(s)/training you will need to take or attend in order to receive your new transition certification
- “Certification Based on the 2007 California Codes” lists the 2007 California-specific certification that is equivalent to the combination of your National examination certificate plus the required exam(s) and/or seminar(s)/training
