Eligibility

- Code Enforcement Employees
Applicants for most scholarships shall be children (as defined below) of code enforcement agency personnel. The jurisdictional authority must be an active Governmental Member of the International Code Council. (Please see note below.)
- Children (Definition)
Children must be dependents as defined by the Internal Revenue Service. Typically, this includes birth children, stepchildren, legally adopted children, or a legal ward financially supported by the employee.

Note: The William J. Tangye scholarship is available to children of all active ICC members however the applicant must be enrolled in Engineering, Architecture or Construction Technology programs. Also, some of the ICC Chapters prefer candidates from their home states however it is not a mandatory requirement. Please refer to details of all ICC Scholarship Programs on our web site at www.iccsafe.org/scholarships/Pages/Sponsored. Applicants should only complete one application to apply for all scholarships for which they are eligible.

Selection Criteria

- The applicant must:
  - Be pursuing educational opportunities beyond the high school level at a recognized and/or accredited institution.
  - Demonstrate a need for financial assistance. Financial information will be required along with detail of any other financial assistance the applicant is receiving.
  - Provide evidence of satisfactory scholastic achievement including grades, test scores and teacher recommendations.
  - Complete the Scholarship Application. A one-page narrative on why the applicant should be awarded the scholarship is also required.

I solemnly affirm that all information provided is correct to the best of my knowledge and that I have read and understand the information outlined above. If I am the recipient of a scholarship I agree to use the proceeds only for the furtherance of my education at an approved institution.
