

ICC Code of Ethics

Approved: 9/28/13 | Revised: 06/11/22

The protection of the health, safety and welfare of the public by creating safe buildings and communities is the solemn responsibility of the International Code Council (“ICC”) and all who participate in ICC activities. Recognizing this, the ICC advocates commitment to a standard of professional behavior that exemplifies the highest ideals and principles of ethical conduct. The governing concepts embodied in this philosophy are characterized herein, for the benefit and guidance of those so engaged, and for the enlightenment of the public so served.

Each individual participating in an ICC activity shall:

- Support the mission of the ICC to provide the highest quality codes, standards, products and services for all concerned with the safety and performance of the built environment.
- At all times, act in an ethical manner, comply with the ethical rules and regulations related to his or her profession, and avoid conflicts of interest. Participants shall disclose known or potential conflicts of interest that could appear to influence their judgment.
- Demonstrate integrity, honesty, equity, professional conduct, and fairness while participating in ICC activities, including reports, statements or testimony.
- For ICC certified individuals, maintain professional competence in all areas of employment responsibility and encourage the same for colleagues and associates.
- Act in accordance with the Bylaws and Policies of the International Code Council, including this Code of Ethics.

The ICC Board of Directors may take any actions it deems necessary in order to enforce this Code of Ethics and to preserve the integrity of the International Code Council.
