What is the International Code Council?
The International Code Council is a member-focused association. It is dedicated to developing model codes and standards used in the design, build and compliance process to construct safe, sustainable, affordable and resilient structures. Most U.S. communities and many global markets choose the International Codes.

International Code Council members include code and fire officials, architects, engineers, bUILDERS, contractors, plan viewers, permit technicians and designers.

Why the International Code Council?
In an industry where information is power, the International Code Council connects you to more than 87,000 potential customers each month. There is no better way to address a responsive core of professionals—across town or around the world.

If you place a premium on getting your message into the hands of influential city, county, state, federal, corporate, industrial and service-industry decision makers, no other vehicles are better positioned to help you achieve your goal.

What is Building Safety Month?
Building Safety Month is an annual public awareness campaign culminating in May that is celebrated by jurisdictions worldwide to help individuals, families and businesses understand what it takes to create safe and sustainable structures. In its 39th year, the campaign reinforces the need for the adoption of modern, regularly-updated building codes, a strong and efficient system of code enforcement and a well-trained, professional workforce to maintain the system.

All communities need building codes to protect their citizens from disasters like fires, weather-related events and structural collapse. Building codes are society’s best way of protecting homes, offices, schools, manufacturing facilities, stores and entertainment venues. Code officials work day in and day out to keep the public safe.

The campaign is presented by the International Code Council and its 64,000 members worldwide along with a diverse partnership of professionals from the building construction, design and safety communities. Corporations, government agencies, professional associations, nonprofits and more come together to support Building Safety Month because they understand the need for safe and sustainable structures where we live, work and learn.

How does the campaign work?
The Code Council uses multiple channels (websites, social media, press releases, advertisements, news articles and more) to promote Building Safety Month. Educational and promotional resources are available online. Sponsors are highlighted through various channels commensurate with their level of sponsorship. Major sponsors may provide branded content for the website and receive name recognition in media used to promote the campaign throughout the United States and abroad.

Who recognizes Building Safety Month?
In the past, U.S. presidents, governors, congressmen, state and local leaders, associations and organizations have issued statements of support for Building Safety Month. This recognition of the critical nature of a resilient, safe, strong and sustainable built environment delivered the highest possible leadership validation of Building Safety Month and the dedicated professionals who have committed their careers to making buildings safe in communities across the globe.

What can sponsors expect during the 2019 celebration?
Building Safety Month generates widespread news coverage and focus on the importance of building codes, code compliance and resilient, safe and sustainable structures. The campaign leverages print and broadcast media, social media, and letters of support from corporations and other organizations. Sponsor mentions and materials are included in the Building Safety Journal with more than 100,000 subscribers. Sponsor companies and organizations will be showcased and recognized for their demonstrated commitment to this vitally important social issue.

Why your sponsorship matters
Building Safety Month is made possible through the efforts of extraordinary sponsors who receive an unparalleled opportunity to standout as leaders in building safety. This campaign is a chance for sponsors to reach the Code Council membership, others in the built environment and the public.

Early sponsorship commitments ensure a high return on investment for sponsors, the Code Council and society at large.

Building Safety Month campaign highlights
The annual campaign culminating in May gives sponsors the opportunity to align their company with the International Code Council under the main theme of “No Code. No Confidence.”

Weekly messaging during May 2019 will reinforce and leverage the special topics listed below.

ICC Advertising Guidelines

1. Construction related product advertisements from manufacturers, vendors and service providers are encouraged and will be accepted for inclusion in Code Council publications, such as BSJ Weekly and the Building Safety Journal. However, outside of arrangements made with the Code Council, advertisements promoting the following categories will not be accepted:
   a. Safety Codes and Standards not referenced in the ICC Family of Codes
   b. Product and System Evaluation Services
   c. Plumbing, Mechanical and Fuel Gas Services
   d. Sustainability (Green) Evaluation and Verification Services
   e. Training, Education and Certification on Codes and Standards
   f. Building Department Accreditation and Accreditation Services
   g. Plan Review Services

2. The Code Council must approve all advertisements and reserves the right to refuse any advertisement for any reason.

3. The Code Council will not accept advertising unless the client is prepared to validate any claims, issues or statements made in the advertisement about a product, material, system, method or service.

4. The Code Council will not accept advertising that contains comparisons to or derogatory, disparaging or inflammatory comments about the client’s competitors or about competing products or services.

5. The client acknowledges that an advertisement in a Code Council publication does not constitute, and shall not be interpreted as an endorsement by the Code Council of the client’s organization, product, material, system, method or service.

6. It is understood that clients shall not use the Code Council name or image in their commercial activities in any manner that would directly or indirectly indicate the Code Council’s endorsement of the client, or product, system or services, unless there is a contractual agreement with the Code Council.

7. The Code Council does not accept advertising that is discriminatory based on race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age or disability.

Acceptance of Contracts

1. No rebates will be allowed for errors in submitted advertisements.
2. The client and/or the client’s agency agree to indemnify the Code Council against all expenses of any nature arising from the unauthorized use of names or pictures and copyright infringements in their advertisements.
3. No contracts will be accepted for more than 12 months in advance.
4. An order may be canceled by the Code Council if the client(s) fail to pay accounts when due, and the difference between rates billed and rates earned on space used shall become due and payable immediately.
5. Cancellation policy: Client must cancel in writing, including reason for canceling. Written notice must be received at ICC’s Birmingham office BEFORE the insertion order deadline of the next scheduled issue. Email or fax is acceptable. Client will be billed the difference in rates times the number of issues run.
6. The Code Council is not bound by any condition or instruction, whether verbal or written, if it is in conflict with ICC’s established policies.
7. Contracts must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues and advertisement sizes.
8. All advertising rates and conditions are subject to change without notice.
