

International Code Council Government Relations Update

June 2014

2015 Editions of the International Codes Now Available.

The 2015 I-Codes (link: <http://shop.iccsafe.org/codes/2015-international-codes-and-references.html>) help achieve resiliency, safety, innovation and affordability in the built environment. Code users can begin today to prepare for adoption and use of the newest codes. Code purchases include a free subscription to ICC's new Code Alert service that provides critical code updates and free access to videos, excerpts from support documents and training resources.

It's That Time Again: Chapter Annual Reports

All chapters must submit their Annual Reports by August 15 in order to qualify for the Chapter President complimentary Annual Conference registration benefit. Once submitted, the Chapter President will receive a discount code that may be used to register for the Annual Conference. If you submit your Annual Report after August 15, you'll still be available for benefits such as a 2015 Chapter Education Benefit; you'll only have missed the complimentary Chapter President registration. You may transfer the complimentary registration to one other Chapter officer with notification. Email khiggs@iccsafe.org if you have any questions or wish to transfer the registration.

Speaking of the Annual Conference...

The 2014 ICC Annual Conference, Group C Public Comment Hearings and Expo will be held September 28-October 5 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Registration is now open, and you can SAVE $60 if you register before August 15th. The link to register is here:

<https://ww2.eventrebels.com/er/EventHomePage/CustomPage.jsp?ActivityID=10579&ItemID=41735>

When you register for the Conference, look carefully at the Conference schedule:

<https://ww2.eventrebels.com/er/EventHomePage/CustomPage.jsp?ActivityID=10579&ItemID=41738> .

What's changed? The Conference is one day shorter this year so everyone can attend as many events as possible and save on their travel expenses. Region meetings are now on Sunday afternoon, following the Membership Council Annual Meetings. In addition, there will not be any breakfast meetings this year. The Chapter Presidents Breakfast has been folded into the Networking Luncheon on Monday, where Chapter Presidents will be recognized. The Chapter of the Year Award will be presented at the Awards Luncheon on Tuesday.

Applications for Code of Honor Scholarships Still Open

Code of Honor professional development scholarships help ensure that the I-Codes reflect the consensus view of officials at all levels of government by providing funding to Governmental Member Voting Representatives seeking to attend and participate in the Public Comment Hearings held October 1-7, 2014 in Ft. Lauderdale, FL. The Code of Honor Scholarship program includes the following categories: Architect Leaders, Emerging Leaders, Future Leaders, International Leaders, Match

Scholarship, Small Town Leaders, and Veteran Leaders. Find out more here:

ICC-ES Issues Clarification Bulletin to AC232

ICC-ES recently became aware of possible confusion regarding the external interpretation of specific text and review criteria contained in AC232, Acceptance Criteria for Anchor Channels in Concrete Elements. As the entity responsible for the content and publication of AC232, and to assist code officials and other interested parties with the acceptance of evaluation reports for anchor channels to the requirements of AC232, ICC-ES offers the following clarifications found here: <http://www.iccsafe.org/News/Notices/ES/AC232clarification.pdf>.
