ICC Chapter Leadership Academy 2024

QUALITY OF LIFE AND LEADERSHIP

INTRODUCTIONS

Maryia Lackansingh,
Code Specialist, Senior
Commercial Plans
Examiner
Fairfax County, VA
President, Women in Code Enforcement and Development of VA
(WICED of VA)
Instructor, Virginia
Building Code Academy

Christina Jackson, Senior Codes Compliance Inspector-Supervisor Newport News, VA Founding member and Past President, Women in Code Enforcement & Development of VA (WICED of VA) WICED Secretary Permit Tech Nation Board Member, VA Building & Code Officials Association (VBCOA) Education Committee Chair

ICE BREAKER

ICE BREAKER

Fill In The Blank: If You Really Knew Me, You'd Know

Quality of Life

EFFORT

but first.

Like in the Ice
Breaker make sure you have purposeful
engagement to get maximum effort!

The calmer you are, the clearer you think. Move with strategy not with emotions.

MESSAGE

1st Power Express yourself

RESPONSE

2nd Power Listening and Responding

MEDIA

3rd Power
Regulating attention
and intention;
Showing emotional intellegence

RECEIVER

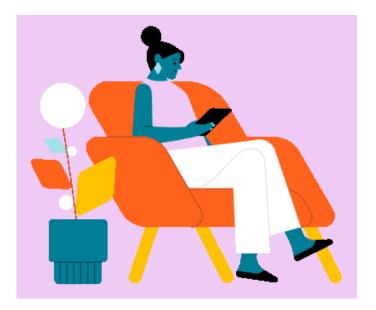

4th Power
Understanding and responding to people within their frame of reference

Expressing your organizations wants and needs

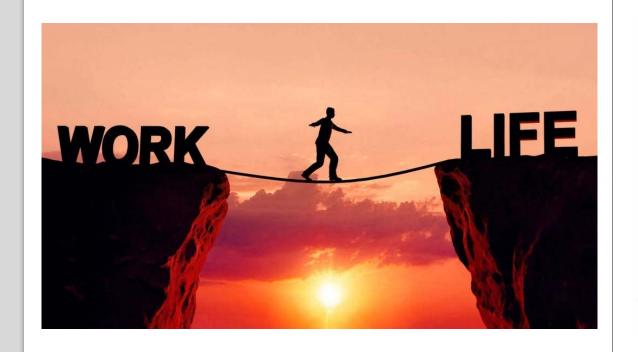

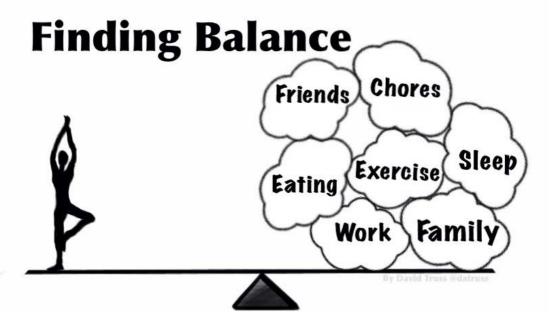

What challenges are you facing?

How has being a chapter leader effected your quality of life?

Do you struggle with balancing work, family, and leading your organization?

What advice have you been given that may change the perspective of someone in this room?

Creativityis thinking up new things. Innovation is doing new things.

YOU'RE ALREADY A LEADER

when you can inspire people to believe in themselves and their potential beyond what they thought was possible.

ICE BREAKER

Fill In The Blank: If You Really Knew Me, You'd Know

"Many people are promoted or recruited into leadership positions without understanding the fundamental philosophy of leadership; It's all about PEOPLE!

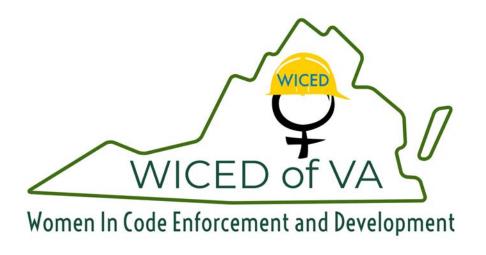

Even If You're A Leader, The Little Things Still Matter!

- Remember the names of the important people in the lives of your direct reports.
- 2. Remember the things they are interested in outside of work do they love to garden? Do they volunteer? What are their weekends like?
- Remember where they went for vacation and ask about their experience, be genuinely interested.
- 4. Remember their favourite food, music, their children's activities.

How do you present yourself to your team? Do parts of your personality reflect in your leadership style?

What questions do you have for us?

Thank you for participating and giving us the opportunity to present to you all today!

