

Building Safety Organizations to Hold Discussion on Ensuring Safety of Existing Buildings

Building Owners and Managers Association International, International Code Council, and National Institute of Building Sciences will bring together experts across building safety, construction and real estate industries. Participants include:

American Concrete Institute (ACI)	Federal Alliance for Safe Homes (FLASH)	National Council of Structural Engineers Associations (NCSEA)
American Institute of Steel Construction (AISC)	Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)	National Institute of Building Sciences (NIBS)
Association for Materials Protection and Performance (AMPP)	Florida Association of Counties	National Earthquake Hazards Reduction Program (NEHRP)
American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE)	Florida Building Commission	National Institute of Standards & Technology (NIST)
Building Officials Association of Florida (BOAF)	Florida Fire Marshals & Inspectors Association (FFMIA)	Naval Facilities Engineering Systems Command (NAVFAC)
Building Owners and Managers Association International (BOMA)	Innovative Emergency Management (IEM)	Pistorino & Alam Consulting Engineers, Inc.
Cagley & Associates	Insurance Institute for Business & Home Safety (IBHS)	Structural Engineering Institute (SEI)
CAP Government	J.S. Held	University of Florida
Charlotte County, Florida	Lake County Building Services	Virginia Tech
City of Coconut Creek	Miami Dade	