RE: Andre Jaen- Letter of Support for reappointment to the International Code Council
Board of Directors

Dear Mr. Spencer and Committee Members:

It is with great pride and honor that the Board of Directors of the Colorado Association of Permit Technicians recommends Andre Jaen to retain his position on the Board of Directors of the International Code Council.

Andre has been a steady source of leadership, dedication, and heart. His commitment to the mission, vision, and values of the International Code Council and its Chapters is evident in everything he does. Andre's passion for professional development reflects not only his pursuit of excellence but also his genuine desire to help and see others succeed. Andre's leadership shines through his dedication to developing others by mentoring rising professionals, empowering colleagues, and encouraging shared learning that benefits the entire organization.

One of Andre's greatest strengths is his natural talent for building relationships and strengthening unity among ICC Chapters, encouraging partnership, communication, and shared purpose. He is a trusted, respected leader and mentor whose influence has encouraged many – especially within our Chapter.

Andre is an engaged member of the Colorado Chapter and the International Code Council, contributing countless hours through committee service, sharing his knowledge and expertise, and supporting the goals of the organization. His professionalism, passion for the industry, and dedication to continued education and collaboration speak volumes about his character and capability. Andre's commitment and experience make him an outstanding candidate for the International Code Council Board of Directors.

We are confident that Andre will continue to be an outstanding steward of the ICC's mission, vision, and values. His integrity and dedication to serving the building safety community make him exceptionally suited for this role.

Should you need any additional information, please feel free to contact myself or our Past President, Audra Gerber, at copermittechs@gmail.com.

Respectfully,

Melinda Helmer, President
On behalf of the Board of Directors
Colorado Association of Permit Technicians
