Dear Mr. David Spencer

The Women in Code Enforcement and Development of Virginia (WICED of VA) Board of Directors is pleased to express our strong support for Benjamin R. K. Breadmore for continued service on the International Code Council (ICC) Board of Directors.

Mr. Breadmore demonstrates an exceptional level of professionalism, leadership, and experience within the building code profession. His dedication to the development and advancement of building codes, along with his commitment to the continued growth of the industry, makes him an outstanding candidate to serve on the ICC Board of Directors.

We are confident that Mr. Breadmore's strong leadership qualities, passion for developing future code professionals, commitment to the industry, and extensive knowledge of the codes will continue to make him an asset to the International Code Council and its members and stakeholders. His experience and dedication position him to provide meaningful leadership and contribute to the continued advancement of the code profession.

WICED of VA respectfully asks for your consideration and support for Benjamin R. K. Breadmore for the ICC Board of Directors. We believe he will continue to provide strong leadership, valuable insight, and meaningful contributions to the Council and the building code profession.

Thank you for your consideration and for supporting leaders who are committed to strengthening our profession and advancing the mission of the International Code Council.

Sincerely,

Farrah Henderson
