Dear Mr. Chairman and the International Code Council Nominations Committee:

As part of our Initiatives for Excellence, in the interest of professionalism and our department's dedication to public and professional service, I am writing this letter on behalf of Alan Boswell and acknowledge his pursuit for service on the ICC Board of Directors. Our jurisdiction is supportive and understands the importance of him serving ICC.

It is with our support and encouragement that our employees pursue professional development and service opportunities. The effort and dedication put forward by these individuals ultimately benefits our business operations, the progress of code enforcement and the public that we serve.

Respectfully submitted,
