About Code Council Contractor/Trades Testing

The International Code Council's Contractor/Trades examination program is an independent testing program designed to provide licensing agencies with information regarding qualified contractors and trades professionals. Participating in the Code Council examination program does not guarantee that a licensing agency will award you a license. However, the Code Council examination program serves as an independent appraisal of your competency in the construction field, and your test results may be used by licensing agencies to satisfy the requirements for testing.

The International Code Council is not a licensing agency. If you want to become licensed in a city, county, or state that participates with the Code Council, that jurisdiction will require you to take and pass a Code Council examination. Upon successful completion of the examination, contact the jurisdiction for any other requirements in order to become licensed.

Testing Information and Frequently Asked Questions

The purpose of this bulletin is to provide you with information regarding how to schedule and take your contractor/trades examination. Prior to scheduling a test with this program, you must first make a license application with the South Dakota Electrical Commission.

Complete the license application and submit it, along with a $60 application processing fee and a copy of your valid photo identification, to the following address:

South Dakota Electrical Commission
217 W Missouri Ave
Pierre, SD 57501
(605) 773-3573
(605) 773-6213 fax
<https://dlr.sd.gov/electrical>

If your application is satisfactory, the Code Council will be notified of your eligibility to test. Once you receive notification of approval from the licensing agency, you may apply for and schedule your examination. Once approved by the Electrical Commission for testing, you have 90 days within which to test. If you fail to test within this timeframe, you will be required to reapply and resubmit the $60 fee to the Electrical Commission.

IMPORTANT NOTE: It is recommended that you wait at least 24-48 hours after receiving your notice of approval before you try to schedule your examination. This will ensure the Code Council and its computer testing partner have had time to process your eligibility record.

Unless otherwise noted, all examinations are referenced solely to the National Electrical Code. During the exam, in addition to the NEC, you may use the following references:

- Ferm's Fast Finder Index, IAEI
- Ugly's Electrical Reference, George V. Hart
- National Electrical Code Handbook, NFPA
- Tom Henry's Key Word Index

*Some electricians use the NEC Handbook as their copy of the National Electrical Code. Therefore, so that the candidate does not have to buy an extra softcover NEC for the exam, the NEC Handbook (hardcover) is allowed during the exam. Note: The NEC Handbook contains explanatory material in addition to the code provisions. However, the exam is based only on the code provisions.

Before Purchasing an Exam

What examination do I need to take?

As requirements for employment differ from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, the Code Council cannot recommend specific examinations to you. We strongly encourage you to contact the jurisdiction in which you wish to work for more information on their specific exam requirements for licensure.

How do I know if pre-approval is required for me to test?

Some licensing agencies may require you to apply through them prior to testing with ICC, while others may not. Please contact your local licensing agency or review the appropriate National Contractor/Trades Examination Information Bulletin on the Code Council's website.

How often can I test?

You must wait 30 days before retaking a failed exam. After the 2nd failed attempt, you must wait 90 days for each subsequent attempt. It is strongly recommended that you allow time to study the approved references before registering to test a second time.

What examination methods are available?

The Code Council offers the following testing method.

- Pearson VUE - Traditional, computer-based testing occurs at test sites administered by Pearson VUE frequently at over 350 sites across the nation. To locate test sites in your area, visit the Pearson VUE website for an updated listing of sites. Be aware that test sites are subject to change.

Visit the Exam Catalog for information on your exam.

What references or code books are the exams based on?

The approved references for each exam are listed in the Examination Outlines section of this bulletin. For the most up-to-date bulletin information, visit the Exam Catalog.

Are the examinations open book?

Most Contractor/Trades exams are open book. Refer to the Examination Outlines section of this bulletin for open/ closed book requirements for specific exams. For the most up-to-date bulletin, visit the Exam Catalog. Additional policies governing the use of references can be found later in this bulletin.

What type of question format will be included in the examination?

Test questions are in four-option, multiple-choice format, with one answer on each question scored as correct. Due to the rigorous psychometric processes used by the Code Council in exam development, questions do not follow patterns (e.g., "the most common answer is 'B'").

Can't I just look up all of the answers in the books?

Because of the time constraints, you will not have time to look up all of the answers. For those answers you must look up, you must be VERY familiar with the references to avoid wasting time searching for information. First impressions are often the most accurate, but you may change your answers if time allows.

How long are the examinations?

The length and allowed time vary depending upon the subject matter. To get the most updated information on examinations, visit the Exam Catalog.

Should I guess if I don't know the answer to a question?

There is no guessing penalty, so it is to your advantage to answer every question. Remember to base your answers on the listed references for each exam, not solely on long-time field practices.

What score do I need to pass the test?

Most Contractor/Trades examinations require a candidate to answer at least 70 percent of their questions correctly in order to pass the exam. The Electrician Inspector and Residential Farmstead Electrical Inspector examinations require 80 percent of the questions to be answered correctly to pass. It is important that you carefully read the relevant bulletin or contact the licensing agency for information regarding their minimum passing requirement.

When will I receive my results?

Results for examinations taken electronically are available immediately after completion of the examination.

Do I have to be a computer whiz?

Candidates are not required to have any computer knowledge to take the examination.

- Pearson VUE - before you begin your test, you may take up to 15 minutes to practice with the sample questions. Timing of the examination does not begin until you look at the first question of the actual examination. You will be allowed to change your answers, mark answers for review, go back to skipped questions and, time permitting, review your test.

How do I pay for my exam?

- Pearson VUE - Examination fees must be paid by credit card, debit card (issued through VISA or MasterCard) or electronic check at the time a reservation is made, NOT at the test center. Candidates who do not have or do not wish to use a credit card, debit card, or personal checking account may choose to prepay their examination fees using a voucher. Vouchers can be purchased online at ICC Contractors Vouchers by credit card, either singly or in volume. To redeem a voucher as payment when scheduling a test, simply indicate "voucher" as the payment method and provide the voucher number.

All exam vouchers are pre-paid, non-refundable, and non-returnable. Vouchers expire twelve (12) months from the date they are issued, and voucher expiration dates cannot be extended. The exam must be taken by the expiration date printed on the voucher.

The Code Council reserves the right to revoke or withhold any examination scores if, in its sole opinion, there is adequate reason to question their validity. Reasons are:

In cases of examination irregularities which are suspected at testing centers, the scores of the individual(s) involved will not be released unless approved by the Code Council. Additional sanctions may be authorized by the Board, which may include restrictions on retesting for up to three (3) years.

How do I change my name and address?

NOTE: Your ICC email address is the Pearson VUE email address used to register for an ICC Contractor/Trades examination. To update your candidate demographic information (Address, Phone Number, Email, and Legal Name), log in to your myICC account. Click here for additional information.

If you are unable to access your myICC account, please contact ICC at 1-888-422-7233 ext. 5524 or via email at customersuccess@iccsafe.org.

How do I make comments about an exam I took?

Some scores may be rendered invalid because of circumstances beyond the examinee's control, such as faulty examination materials or mistiming. These situations will be investigated; when such occurrences result in cancellation of an examinee's scores, the Code Council will arrange for a makeup examination for the examinees concerned.

To have Code Council Credentialing staff review comments or challenges on specific exams, exam items, or any issues encountered during your examination, you must submit a Contractor Appeals form to the Code Council.

Our experience shows that the best comments are those that come as soon after the testing process as possible. Include sufficient amount of detail to aid staff in the review of your challenged question(s) or issues related to the exam experience. Following receipt of your challenge, Credentialing staff will investigate each comment for merit and final determination of approval or denial of your challenge.

You will be mailed a response from Code Council staff within 15 business days from receipt of the form by the Code Council; a request for staff review is based solely upon the most recent examination taken.

IMPORTANT NOTE: If you retake a failed exam on which you have submitted an appeal, you will forfeit your appeal opportunity for that exam attempt.

Comment/Challenge forms must be sent to the following mailing or email address:
