

Grant Ullrich

Grant Ullrich, Assoc. AIA, is Managing Deputy Commissioner of the City of Chicago Department of Buildings with responsibility for code development, policy, and administration. He is currently leading a multi-year effort to better align Chicago's construction requirements with the latest model building codes and standards, including the International Building Code.

Grant is a licensed attorney and holds professional degrees in law and architecture from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Prior to joining the Department of Buildings he worked in the City of Chicago Law Department handling a wide variety of matters including civil prosecutions, legislative drafting, and high-profile constitutional litigation.

In 2019, Grant was elected to the ICC Major Jurisdictions Steering Committee, and he will be a member of two ICC code development committees in the 2021/2022 Code Development Cycle.