

Hilda M. Martinez

Hilda entered the code enforcement field in 1998 and has been recognized as the first female code enforcement officer for the City of Brownsville, Texas. Since then she has worked as a code officer for the City of San Antonio, Manatee County Florida and, currently, with the City of Austin Texas.

During her 23+ years tenure Hilda assisted with leading the initiative for all City of Brownsville code officers to be registered with the state of Texas. She also joined the demolition team with the City of San Antonio; has worked in the residential, multi-family, commercial teams; and piloted the Repeat Offender Program and the Short-Term Rental and Code Connect divisions/programs.

Hilda joined the City of Austin: Austin Code family in 2013 as an inspector and is now an investigator under the Short-term Rental / Licensing & Registration Division.

As an investigator, Hilda holds a Texas Department of State registration for Basic Code Officer Certification, Intermediate Code Officer Certification and Texas Commission of Law Enforcement Instructor Certification. She is currently working to further her career in the code enforcement field.
