ICC Community Development Honored with Digital Transformation Award for Second Consecutive Year

ICC Community Development recognized once again for achieving record sales and providing exceptional support in 2025

Rochester, N.Y. – ICC Community Development has been recognized with the prestigious Digital Transformation Award from Laserfiche, the leading SaaS provider of intelligent content management. This award represents the highest honor given to a Solution Provider for outstanding sales performance and exceptional client support. With this award, ICC Community Development has become the only Laserfiche Solution Provider to receive it for two consecutive years.

Over the past year, the organization has demonstrated remarkable growth, achieving year-over-year increases in both Cloud sales and total Laserfiche sales. This exceptional performance highlights ICC Community Development’s leadership in providing cutting-edge digital solutions that empower local governments and organizations to streamline operations and enhance service delivery.

“Winning the Digital Transformation Award for the second year in a row is an extraordinary recognition of our team’s relentless pursuit of innovation,” said Mike Rizzo, Director of Business Solutions at ICC Community Development. “Being the first organization to receive this honor consecutively underscores our deep commitment to empowering communities with technology that enhances efficiency, transparency and meaningful digital progress.”

Since 1999, the Laserfiche Winners Circle has recognized top-selling achievers within the Laserfiche Solution Provider community. This recognition underscores ICC Community Development’s commitment to delivering impactful results for its clients.

“Congratulations to the extraordinary Laserfiche partners that make up the 2026 Winners Circle,” said Josep Domingot, Vice President of Sales at Laserfiche. “These organizations are delivering intelligent information management solutions that result in productivity, cost savings and new avenues for innovation. We look forward to our continued partnership as we help customers navigate opportunities to leverage AI and workplace transformation together.”

ICC Community Development is now a part of ICC Innovation, a new initiative bringing together powerful digital solutions for professional development, community growth and code compliance.

As ICC Community Development continues to expand its impact, the group remains committed to helping local governments and organizations harness the power of Laserfiche’s industry-leading technology to build more efficient, resilient, and digitally enabled communities.
