Industry-Leaders American Legal Publishing and General Code Unite to Provide Communities with Best-in-Class Codification Services

This new identity combines 156 years of codification expertise to serve more than 7,000 communities worldwide

Washington D.C. – The International Code Council (ICC) is pleased to announce that General Code and American Legal Publishing have united under a single brand, ICC Code Solutions™. The new identity brings together two of the industry’s most trusted codification providers, with a combined 156 years of experience in the development, maintenance and publication of municipal codes. ICC Code Solutions now supports more than 7,000 communities across 47 states, Canada and more than a dozen tribal territories.

The launch of ICC Code Solutions reflects a shared vision to modernize and strengthen codification services through integrated expertise, proven processes and advanced digital resources. Together, ICC Code Solutions can better support communities as they navigate growth and regulatory change.

“ICC Code Solutions is designed to elevate and strengthen the future of codification services and community resiliency on a national scale,” said ICC Chief Executive Officer, John Belcik. “By bringing together the people, values and strengths of both organizations, ICC Code Solutions is positioned to accelerate innovation and deliver greater value to the jurisdictions and their citizens that rely on access to their municipal ordinances.”

ICC Code Solutions offers a comprehensive suite of products and services, including online municipal code platforms, zoning and land-use mapping tools and extensive code libraries. Customers will benefit from best-in-class technology, streamlined service delivery and access to experienced codification professionals, all under a unified brand.
