John “JC” Hudgison Appointed to International Code Council Board of Directors

Hudgison brings over 17 years of experience in architecture, construction management and building code enforcement to the Board

Washington D.C. – The International Code Council has appointed John “JC” Hudgison, CBO, Construction Services Center Manager and Chief Building Official for the City of Tampa, Florida, to its 2023-2024 Board of Directors. Appointed by Code Council Board President Stuart D. Tom, P.E., CBO, FIAE and ratified by the full Board, Hudgison assumed the vacated Section F seat on July 22, 2024.

Hudgison brings over 17 years of experience in architecture, construction management and building code enforcement to the Board. He is both a Certified Building Official and a Building Code Administrator and is actively involved with the Code Council, including leadership positions in multiple important committees and councils. Hudgison was the 2023 recipient of the Code Council’s prestigious Emory R. Rodgers Leadership in Building Safety Fellowship, and he also currently serves on the National Institute of Building Sciences’ Board of Directors.

“JC’s leadership on pivotal committees within the Code Council makes him an ideal addition to our Board of Directors,” said President Tom. “With his extensive industry knowledge and years of experience, I am confident he will provide valuable insight and guidance to our organization.”
