Dear Mr. Bryant,

The board of directors and members of the Napa Solano Chapter of the International Code Council provide strong support for James W. "Jim" Sayers and his candidacy for the position of Director at Large for ICC Board of Directors for another term.

Our members are passionate about the advancement of our industry, the importance of the local chapters, and how they can have a positive influence on the quality of life in their communities.

Jim has shown himself as someone who is involved in the local chapters along with actively pursuing various ways to increase professionalism in our industry and help to raise the profile of those working in our industry by acting in the capacity of a liaison to multiple ICC local chapters. He has also served on numerous committees dealing with different levels of government that impact our industry.

The Napa Solano Chapter of the International Code Council feels he will be a great asset to the ICC Board for another term.

Sincerely,

The Board and members of the Napa Solano ICC Chapter.
