Dear Chairman Spencer and ICC Nominating Committee,

On behalf of ICC Region X, I am honored to convey our full support for Marty Moseley as a candidate for a Board of Director position on the ICC Board of Directors.

During our regional meeting on 7/8/26, the Region X Chapters Nominating Committee presented Mr. Moseley's candidacy for consideration. After a comprehensive discussion and review, his nomination received a unanimous vote of approval from our full membership.

Mr. Moseley's has consistently demonstrated strong leadership, a deep understanding of the code development process, and a steadfast commitment to advancing the goals of the International Code Council. His professional achievements, coupled with his ongoing contributions to the building safety community, have earned the respect and trust of peers across the region.

We believe Mr. Moseley's experience, judgment, and dedication make him exceptionally qualified to serve on the Board. His thoughtful approach to problem-solving and collaborative spirit will be valuable assets as the International Code Council continues to evolve and face new challenges.

We respectfully ask the Nominating Committee to give Mr. Moseley's candidacy your full and favorable attention. Should you require any further details or insights from our region, please feel free to contact me directly.

Sincerely,
