Now, therefore, I, Phil Bryant, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2019 as Building Safety Month in the State of Mississippi.

WHERAS, each year in observation of Building Safety Month, Americans are asked to consider the importance of the laws and regulations that protect them and their families.

WHERAS, no code, no confidence, the theme of Building Safety Month 2019, emphasizes all the codes adopted by local communities, as well as the International Code Council, its mandatory adoption and enforcement by local communities, and their effective enforcement.

WHERAS, building safety month is a great opportunity for citizens to join their local communities in promoting and supporting the laws and regulations that protect all citizens.

WHERAS, a national educational campaign to raise awareness about the importance of building safety is sponsored by the International Code Council, its mandatory adoption and enforcement by local communities.

WHERAS, local building inspections are conducted by the International Code Council, its mandatory adoption and enforcement by local communities, and their effective enforcement.

WHERAS, the laws and regulations that protect citizens are enforced by local communities, and their effective enforcement is essential to the safety and well-being of our citizens.

WHEREAS, the theme of Building Safety Month 2019, "Building Safety Month: Building Smart, Building Safe," emphasizes the importance of the laws and regulations that protect citizens.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Phil Bryant, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2019 as Building Safety Month in the State of Mississippi.