NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip D. Murphy, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim the month of June of the current year as New Jersey's Building Safety Month.

WHEREAS Building Safety Month is sponsored by the International Code Council to remind the public of the critical role our communities' historic building codes play in protecting our homes, communities, and the health, safety and welfare of our citizens;

WHEREAS the International Code Council, the most widely adopted building safety and the energy and fire safety codes in the United States, is dedicated to improving the construction industry, ensuring that our buildings are safe and sound and in keeping with national standards, leading the movement to improve construction practices in New Jersey and throughout the nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip D. Murphy, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim June of the current year as New Jersey's Building Safety Month.

PHILIP D. MURPHY
