ICC-ES announces its 2018-2019 Board of Managers roster

With an impressive history in the building safety industry, these managers will help advance the company's position as a leader in technical evaluations of building products

Brea, Calif. – The ICC Evaluation Service (ICC-ES) announces its roster for the 2018-2019 Board of Managers to include four reappointments, two new members and four continuing managers. The Board members advise ICC-ES management and help advance the company's position as the leader in technical evaluations of building products.

The four reappointments are:

- Jeff Ellis, P.E., S.E., is the director of Codes and Compliance for Simpson Strong-Tie, where he manages the company codes and compliance efforts. He has more than 27 years of construction industry experience.
- Catherine Low, S.E., P.E., is the principal structural engineer for C.A.P. Low SE. She works on behalf of private property owners and public agencies in California and Nevada to offer advanced structural analysis and condition assessment services.
- Michael Nugent, C.B.O, currently serves as the Building Official for the City of Rock Hill, South Carolina. He has been in code administration and enforcement since 1981 in both the private and public sectors.
- Ravi Shah, Assoc. AIA., CBO, is the director of Development Services for the city of Carrollton, Texas, where he manages planning, permitting, inspections and transit-oriented development.

ICC-ES also welcomes two new experienced code officials, Sharon Goei, P.E., CBO, LEED AP, and Richard C. Truitt, Sr., to its board. Goei has over 19 years of experience in the building and construction industry and currently serves as a building official for the City of Santa Clara, Calif. Truitt is the deputy director for Harford County Government in Bel Air, Maryland, and brings more than 27 years of experience in the building safety industry.

The four continuing members are Scott McCormick; Michael L. Savage, Sr., MCP, CBO, CFPS, CEI-M; David J. Spencer, CBCO, CBO; and Daniel P. Walsh, CBO.

"The members of our Board of Managers provide a valuable service to the building safety community and are essential to the success of ICC-ES. I am excited to have such knowledgeable individuals on the board to help guide our future direction," said ICC-ES President Shahin Moinian, P.E.

ICC-ES is the top choice for manufacturers in performing technical evaluations for code compliance. In addition to providing the highest quality evaluation reports in the industry, ICC-ES also delivers some of the fastest service with a current median project timeline of two months.
