

Proclamation

BUILDING SAFETY MONTH

"Building Safety Starts with You!"

WHEREAS, our homes, schools, workplaces, and places of worship are made safer and more resilient by modern construction standards and practices developed through the commitment of building safety professionals; and

WHEREAS, Building Safety Month is an international campaign celebrated each May to raise awareness about building safety, and the importance of the codes and the officials who implement them; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme, "Building Safety Starts with You!", encourages individuals, families, and businesses to take proactive steps in creating and maintaining safe and sustainable buildings and communities; and

WHEREAS, building safety professionals—including building inspectors, architects, engineers, builders, and planners—work diligently to ensure the structures in which we live, work, and play are sound and secure; and

WHEREAS, the adoption and enforcement of model building codes has saved lives and protected property by reducing risks from fire, structural failure, extreme weather, and other hazards; and

WHEREAS, Building Safety Month provides an opportunity to educate the public on critical safety issues such as energy efficiency, sustainability, water safety, disaster preparedness, and innovations in building science;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Mayor and the Township Committee of Warren, County of Somerset, State of New Jersey do hereby proclaim the month of May 2025 as Building Safety Month. We encourage our citizens to join in recognizing the essential role that building safety and code officials play in protecting lives and strengthening our communities.
